In addition to counseling, Great Lakes Credit Union (GLCU) focuses its products and services on the low-income and unbanked segments of our community, offering savings and checking accounts with no minimum balance, ATM and prepaid debit cards, and invests heavily in financial education programs for people to better understand how to budget and save. GLCU's loan products target specific unmet needs where we can add value for individuals and the community and offers small consumer loans, VISA unsecured and secured credit cards, new and used auto loans, home equity and mortgage loans, and small business loans.

GLCU offers free financial education and counseling programs geared towards low and moderate-income households. All classes and one-on-one sessions can be offered in either English or Spanish. Our homebuyer workshop series is an 8-hour workshop in which participants learn about the home buying process from start to finish. Participants are eligible to receive a certificate of completion once they complete all sections of the series, and complete a one-on-one session with our financial counselor.

GLCU provides one-on-one financial and housing counseling services. Counseling topics include the basics of money management, creating a spending plan, improving one's credit score, how to avoid predatory loans, post purchase and foreclosure prevention. GLCU can refer clients to legal services, job search programs, debt management resources and down assistance programs.

GLCU certifies that its staff and volunteers who will provide foreclosure intervention counseling under any grant, have no conflict(s) of interest due to any other relationships with servicers, real estate agencies, mortgage lenders, and/or other entities or industry partners (whether identified here or not) that may stand to benefit from particular counseling outcomes.

As a client of GLCU, you are not obligated to receive any other services offered by GLCU or its industry partners. Information and referrals are provided for informational purposes, and it is the client's sole responsibility to decide the course of action taken regarding their situation.
